THE BIRD'S HEAD HAGGADA

A family-friendly, pop-up edition of a world-famous Haggada

Hardcover | 65 pp. | ISBN 978 965 301 1045 | US $39.95 | CAN $44.95

This family-friendly edition of the world-famous Bird's Head Haggada will keep children and adults engaged in the Passover seder from beginning to end. The only pop-up Haggada available, it includes the complete, traditional Hebrew Passover text with English translation, plus enchanting moveable scenes of matza preparation, the ten plagues, the Israelites crossing the Red Sea, and more. The pop-up Bird's Head Haggada is based on the earliest illustrated Ashkenazi Haggada, produced in Germany c. 1300 and now in the collection of the Israel Museum in Jerusalem. It is named for its depiction of human faces as birds' heads, a practice found in other medieval manuscripts that may derive from the biblical prohibition against making graven images. This delightful pop-up edition of the Bird's Head Haggada features:

- Pull-tabs, pop-outs, pull-downs and other moveable features
- Heavy-duty paper
- Slip case
